

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev got acquainted with the progress of construction of houses in Uychi street of the city of Namangan

Namangan, like all the cities of our country, is becoming more beautiful year by year. Modern houses, infrastructure facilities, parks of culture and recreation are being built here.

The head of our state got acquainted with the ongoing activities on landscaping, improvement of infrastructure and reconstruction of Uychi street in the city of Namangan. Construction of 15 multi-storey buildings and more than 10 infrastructure facilities is continuing in this street. Last autumn, a modern building of children's and youth sports school No. 2 was commissioned. All conditions are created in the complex, which has two closed sports halls and other facilities.

The President of our country gave instructions to responsible officials on completing the construction of multi-storey houses in the established time frame, creating necessary conditions for the residents.

Presentation of projects was held on construction of 8 seven-floor houses in Namangan on the basis of standard projects, the concept of electrification of railways in Fergana valley, construction of a new building of Namangan railway station, reconstruction of buildings of Namangan branches of the republican specialized centers of cardiology and endocrinology, providing them with qualified personnel and modern medical equipment, construction of a youth technopark in Kasansay district.

The head of our state noted that next year 18 multi-storey buildings will be built in the city of Namangan on the basis of model projects. The President noted the need for strict adherence to the principle of fairness in distribution of apartments in these houses.

Shavkat Mirziyoyev visited the reconstructed building of the gallery of Namangan regional union of artists of the Academy of arts of Uzbekistan, and the exhibition that was organized here.

It is necessary to turn the gallery into a real center of enlightenment, to open here a "Master – student" school, which will continue national traditions, organize such galleries in all regions of the country, said the head of our state. It is necessary to create conditions so that youth could grow in the spirit of respect for the centuries-old traditions of national fine and applied art.

The President of our country also visited children's and youth sports school No. 2 of the city of Namangan, where he talked with athletes engaged in artistic gymnastics and boxing.

Today the whole world admires representatives of the Uzbek school of boxing. Members of the national team of Uzbekistan proved their superiority at the summer Olympic Games held in Rio de Janeiro. Not only modern conditions, but also tireless work on oneself, a sense of patriotism and dedication are necessary in achieving such success. I wish you to achieve high achievements in big sport, said the head of our state.

The President of our country presented gifts to young athletes.
