

Historic visit that opened a new era

The results of the visit of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev to the United States are assessed by domestic and foreign experts.

The visit of the President of our country Shavkat Mirziyoyev to the United States of America, address at the 72nd session of the United Nations General Assembly filled the hearts of our compatriots with a feeling of boundless pride.

The United Nations is the largest international organization that unites 193 countries. The General Assembly is its main body. World leaders gather at the session of the General Assembly, every minute counts because of the large number of participants and events. Therefore, the most important issues of international importance are included in its agenda. More than 170 issues were on the agenda of the 72nd session of the General Assembly.

The address of the Head of our state was distinguished by the content and significance of issues raised in it. Despite its brevity, it covered the most pressing issues of our time: reforms in Uzbekistan, issues of democracy, human rights, youth, religious tolerance, international security, regional cooperation, ecology and others.

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev noted that profound reforms are being implemented in Uzbekistan, protection of human rights is being intensified, broad freedom has been created for international relations, a new image of the country is being formed. It was emphasized that Uzbekistan considers the region of Central Asia to be as the main priority of its foreign policy, determined to engage in dialogue, constructive interaction and strengthening the good-neighborliness. The Head of our state noted the so-called exit visas as "an absolutely outdated legacy of the past".

Everyone is talking about the idea expressed by the President of our country "The human interests come first", "The people must not serve the government bodies, rather the government bodies must serve the people", "The richer the people are – the stronger shall be the state", proposals on development of the UN International Convention on the Rights of Youth, the adoption of a special resolution of the General Assembly "Enlightenment and religious tolerance" aroused great interest.

The participants listened attentively to the speech of Shavkat Mirziyoyev, which was broadcast live via UN channels. Journalists who were present at the media center of the organization's headquarters, listening to the address, took notes from the speech. When the President of our country showed a map reflecting the scale of the Aral catastrophe, all were lost in thoughts...

The President of our country has appealed to communicate the truly humanistic essence of Islam to a broad world community. Informed about that the Imam Bukhari International Research Center in Samarkand and the Center for Islamic Civilization in Tashkent are being established in order to preserve and study the richest legacy of our great scientists and thinkers, including Imam Bukhari, disseminate his teachings on enlightened Islam.

After the performance in the hall of the session, the applause did not abate for a long time. The Chairman of the session, the heads of states congratulated the President of our country, hurried to express their impressions.

Thus, the President of the Republic of Turkey Recep Tayyip Erdoğan noted that before any head of state, standing on the UN tribune, did not defend Islamic values, did not mention the name of Imam Bukhari, as the President of our country did.

Within the framework of the session, another important event for our country and people took place. A maquette of Registan Square was installed in the United Nations building.

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev took part and spoke at the event organized in this connection.

It is profoundly symbolic that this exhibit, which is a visiting card of Uzbekistan is installed in one of the most prominent places of the UN Headquarters – in the passage between the halls of the Security Council and the UN General Assembly, said the Head of our state. In our country – one of the cradles of human civilization – science, culture, trade, architecture and craftsmanship have been developed since ancient times. In Samarkand, located in the center of the Great Silk Road, people from all over the world lived in peace and harmony, Registan became a unique symbol of this ancient world-famous city.

The maquette of Registan Square is made by skilled craftsmen of our country, decorated with precious metals and stones. Now everyone working in the United Nations, a participant of the events held here, can admire a "part" of Uzbekistan, which is the hearth of civilization from time immemorial.

President of our country, along with participation at the UN session, as always, very effectively used the time. Met with the heads of several states and international organizations, businesspeople.

Uzbekistan became a member of the UN on March 2, 1992. Today, a number of structures of this organization are operating in our country. These are the World Health Organization, the Organization for Education, Science and Culture, the Food and Agriculture Organization, the Children's Fund, the Population Fund, the Development Programme, the Office on Drugs and Crime and others.

In June this year, the United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres visited Uzbekistan.
