

Shavkat Mirziyoyev listened to people's problems and suggestions

The President of Uzbekistan talked with representatives of public, aksakals, youth and entrepreneurs of Tamdin, Uchkuduk, Kanimekh districts and Zarafshan city. During the conversation, the reforms implemented in the country, creation of great opportunities, activation of friendly relations with neighboring states, employment of people, improvement of well-being of the population, as well as the water supply in Tamdin district, upbringing the younger generation were discussed.

On the same day, a meeting was held in Khatirchi district khokimiyat with participation of the region's activists. Issues of development of the regional economy, increasing attention to creating new jobs, improving living conditions of people, reducing crime among women, consistent continuation of reforms initiated in education, healthcare and other spheres were discussed. The President, having listened to problems and suggestions of people, gave appropriate instructions to responsible persons on promptly taking measures.

Thereupon, the visit of President Shavkat Mirziyoyev to Navoi region ended. As it was emphasized during the trip, implementation of promising projects aimed at improving the well-being of the population, execution of instructions will be under constant control of the Head of the state.

UzA