

President recognizes women's good deeds

A festive event on the occasion of International Women's Day continues in Tashkent.

Addressing the event, the President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev noted good deeds and fruitful activity of Rishtan businesswoman Izrabu Usmanova, who gave her funds to families in need, which accumulated over many years for performing Hajj, a resident of Saykhunabad district of Syrdarya region Gavkhar Khusanova, who built a large library Mumtoz for village residents, a talented young scholar Aziza Shanazarova, who became a professor at 32 of the prestigious Columbia University. The event participants applauded these women.

UzA