

The President to take part in International Forum for Northern Economic Cooperation

President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev will, at the invitation of President of the Republic of Korea Moon Jae-In, take part in the Second International Forum for Northern Economic Cooperation, due October 30 in Seoul in videoconference format.

The agenda of the event includes joint overcoming of consequences of the coronavirus pandemic and enhancement of international partnership.

In his speech, the leader of our country is expected to focus on the most pressing issues of regional politics and prospects for furthering the mutually advantageous cooperation.

In addition to the heads of Uzbekistan and South Korea, the forum is anticipated to be attended also by the presidents of Russia, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Mongolia and others.

president.uz